REINHARDT, Johann Christian

Hof 1761 – Rome 1847

Reinhardt initially studied theology with Goethe's teacher Oeser, who led him towards art, to which he devoted himself from 1783. He stayed in Meiningen from 1786 to 1789, and lived in Rome thereafter. He was principally a landscape painter.

Bibliography

Grove; Meiningen 1904

Pastels

J.6144.101 Der Vater des Kabinettschreiners BAUMBACH, pstl, 1789 (Hospital Grimmenthal, Meiningen, 1904). Exh.: Meiningen 1904, no. 21