

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

AMELSFOORT, Quirinus van

's Hertogenbosch 1760–1820

Portraitist, allegorical and history painter. He was trained in Düsseldorf, where he established a drawings school. He returned definitively to 's Hertogenbosch in 1794. In addition to the oil portraits for which he is best known, Seyn (1949) states that he worked in pastel.

Bibliography

AKL; Bénézit; Seyn 1949, p. 204