ANDRIESEN, Jurriaan

Amsterdam 12.VI.1742–31.VII.1819

Jurriaan and his brother Anthonie were both successful Dutch painters, as well as producing painted wallpapers from their factory in Amsterdam with Izaak Schmidt (q.n.). Jurriaan also made history paintings and designs for theatrical scenery. He was a student at the Amsterdam Tekenacademie, where he was awarded first prize in 1766 and joined the guild of St Luke. He later taught at, and from 1784 was co-director of, the Tekenacademie. The portrait of Amsterdam art collector Versteegh is the only known pastel.
