BATONI, Pompeo

Lucca 25.I.1708 – Rome 4.II.1787

Italian history painter and portraitist (also recorded as a miniaturist), well known for his distinctive portrayal of aristocratic subjects on the Grand Tour. He was based in Rome from 1727. The two Warsaw pastels, which are neither in Clark nor Bowron, are the only surviving pastels said to be (but improbably) by Batoni. As their composition and format are not dissimilar to oval oils Batoni made in Rome in 1780 of Izabella and her sister-in-law Aleksandra Potocka, it is tempting to suggest that they were either anonymous copies of lost Batoni paintings or independent works made up to complete a set (they show similarities with two early pastels by Mme Gault de Saint-Germain, q.v.).
