CHALOT

fl. Sorèze 1783–1810

Miniaturist and teacher of miniature, pastel and portraiture, based for 20 years at the Collège militaire at Sorèze, in the Tarn. Apart from a law case over one of his portraits (judged by Vestier and won by default) little is known about him; few miniatures and only one pastel has survived, of a member of a parlementaire family from Metz (the daughter of Laurent-Nicolas de Lescure, avocat au parlement de Metz, and his wife, née Marguerite-Charlotte Huyn de Vernéville, and whose arms appear on the left). Several members of the Lescure family were enrolled in the Collège militaire at Sorèze in the next generation. A Joseph Chalot from Nancy was professeur de dessin in 1804.
