

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

CHÉRON, Élisabeth-Sophie, Mme Jacques Le Hay

Paris 1648–1711

Daughter and sister of miniaturists (her sister married Alexis-Simon Belle, q.v.), herself a musician and femme de lettres, she was reçue by the Académie de peinture as a portraitist in 1672 on her conversion to Catholicism. In 1699 she became a member of the Accademia dei Ricoverati in Padua. She married a M. Le Hay, ingénieur du roi, in 1708. She specialised as a miniaturist in enamel and gouache, and was known for numerous self-portraits in oil. The suggestion that she worked in pastel has not been traced beyond Greer 2001.

Bibliography

Bénézit; Greer 2001; Lemoine-Bouchard 2008; Mariette 1851–60; Ottawa 2003; Saur; Simon 2007