

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

DELAHAYE, Jean-Baptiste

Orléans 1748 – p.1793

A beautifully inscribed label is attached to the back of this rather unimpressive pastel by this artist. His carte de sûreté (Paris, 16.VIII.1793) describes the “peintre”, aged 45, living in rue du Four, having arrived in Paris 8 years previously from Nantes (where his only known pastel was made according to the Latin inscription); he was born in Orléans.

Pastels

J.26265.101 M. CHARLES (1750–), pstl, 41x35, inscr. verso “JB.DELAHAYE PINXIT, Nannetis anno 1768 verno tempore”, “...Charles étoit agé de 17 ans 3 mois” (Toulouse, Marc Labarbe, 25.IV.2023, Lot 207 repr., est. €60–100; Toulouse, Primardecò, 5.VII.2024, Lot 104 repr., est. €600–800) φδ

