

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

DENNEL, Louis

Abbeville 1741 – Paris 1806

The engraver was taught by Beauvarlet and Wille, and is known mainly for religious pieces. It is impossible to tell if the pastel in the 1931 sale was by him or a homonym, such as Antoine-François Dennel, also an engraver and probably Louis's brother.

Bibliography

Bénézit

Pastels

J.2674.101 Head of a lady, in yellow dress, with powdered hair, pstl, s (London, Christie's, 31.VII.1931, Lot 29 n.r., with a pastel by Peters)