

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

DEVIS, Arthur

Preston 1711 – Brighton 1787

English portrait painter; pupil of Tillemans. His clientèle was mainly middle class and he specialised in conversation pieces and small-scale full-length figures. John Hayes suggested the attribution to Devis of the British Museum lady, but in the absence of other pastels by him, this must be entirely speculative.

Bibliography

S. H. Pavière, The Devis family of painters, Leigh-on-Sea, 1950; Waterhouse 1981

Pastels

?Mrs Eldred Launcelot LEE seated in a landscape
(British Museum 1977,1210.12). Exhb.:
Edinburgh 2008, no. 39 [n. Highmore]