

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

DIERKENS, Elisabeth Bonifacia, Mevr. Coenraad Diederik Neomagus Singendonck

(1724–1768), pstl (Slot Zuylen). Lit.: Moes
1897–1905, II, no. 8477/5

Den Haag 6.XI.1740 – Nijmegen 24.II.1807

The amateur pastellist signing EBD who copied a portrait by Liotard of Elisabeth Fagel was her cousin, Elisabeth Bonaficia Dierkens or Dierquens. She was the daughter of Johan, or Joan, Pieter Dierkens, who, in 1731 at The Hague, married Elisabeth Agneta Fagel, the daughter of the wealthy councillor Cornelis Gerrit Fagel. Dierkens was a burgemeester in The Hague and held various offices and charitable roles. On 29.XII.1765 in The Hague Elisabeth Bonifacia married Coenraad Diederik Neomagus Singendonck, heer van Dieden (1727–1792), postmeester-generaal. No pastels are recorded after her marriage.

Bibliography

Herman Schuttevæer, De familie Dierkens, 1986

GENEALOGIES Fagel

Pastels

J.2736.101 Johan Pieter DIERKENS (1710–1780), postmeester Zuid-Hollandse Postcomtoir in Den Haag; pstl/ppr, 43.4x24.3, sd √ “EBD/1765” (PC). rKD repr. φ

J.2736.103 Elizabeth FAGEL (1735–1759), pstl/pchm, 45x38, sd √ “EBD/1761” (Slot Zuylen inv. S69). Lit.: L&R, s.no. 200 n.r.; Grijzenhout 1985a, 138, as of Johanna Catharina Fagel; Goes & de Meyere 1996, no. 90, repr. pp. 91, 133; rKD repr., attr.; R&L, p. 486 n.r. A/r Liotard (q.v.) φ

J.2736.105 La baronne van TUYLL van Serooskerken, née Helena Jacoba de Vicq