DORIGNY, Michel

Saint-Quentin 1617 – Paris 1665

Religious and history painter and prolific draughtsman, trained by his father-in-law Vouet (q.v.); reçu 1663. A study for a ceiling in the Hôtel Lambert has now been restored to Dorigny, with previous attributions indicating the development of Dorigny's work from Vouet to a more classical style. The use of pastel seems to be confined to some blue chalk.
