

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

DUPUIS

fl. Warsaw? 1780

Possibly a member of the Dupuis family who provided painters to the court of Stanisław Leszczyński. A Nicolas Dupuys or Dupuy is known for an oil portrait of the duc de Lorraine engraved by Drevet. His son and pupil Philippe Dupuy was peintre ordinaire du roi in 1747, and died in Wiede in 1751. The Warsaw pastel contains contradictions between the costume (c.1700–20) and hairstyle (c.1780) and may be a later pastiche.

Pastels

J.2914.101 Dame, pstl, 30x24 ov. (Warsaw, Muzeum Narodowe, inv. MNW 189137. Acqu. p.1945). Exh.: Warsaw 2015, no. I.33, attr. Philippe Dupuy Φπ

Photo courtesy Muzeum Narodowe w Warszawie