John FABER, Sr

The Hague c.1660 – Bristol 1721

Draughtsman and engraver. He moved to London by 1698. Williamson's attribution of a chalk drawing in the Wellesley collection should be treated with caution, and there is no other evidence that he worked in pastel. Neither did his son, John Jr (c.1695–1756), although he left a number of engravings after pastels by Carriera, Hoare and Pond.
