FERNAL, T.

fl. Manchester 1786

An advertisement in the Manchester Mercury of 8.VIII.1786 offered likenesses in oil crayons of watercolour using Storer's Royal Delineator by one "T. Fernal, who lately superintended the Exhibition of Mr Jervais Pictures in Stain'd Glass". A Thomas Fernal of Malpas, Cheshire was married for the second time in 1796, aged 65; but declared himself a farmer. He may be related to the John Fernal, engraver and watchmaker of Wrexham.
