

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

HICKEL, Joseph

Česka Lípa 1736 – Vienna 1807

Prolific portrait painter to the imperial court in Vienna from 1776. He received his early training at the Akademie in Vienna around 1756; in 1768 Maria Theresa sent him to Milan, Parma and Florence. He was responsible for a celebrated image of Joseph II. of which some pastel copies were made. His brother Anton (q.v.) was active in France and England.

Bibliography

Bénézit; Bryan; Vienna 2006

Anon. related pastels

JOSEPH II., pnt., sd 1771 (Wienmuseum, inv. 104.680). Exh.: Vienna 1990, no. II/39 repr.

Lit.: Outram 2006, p. 227

J.3896.101 ~cop., pstl (Rome, Palazzo di Venezia)

φ

