

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

D'HAUTEVILLE

fl. Le Mans 1785

“Le sieur d’Hauteville, peintre en portrait, en pastel, desirant rester quelque temps en vette Ville offre ses services au publis; il se flatte de contenter ceux qui coudront l’employer. Il est logé chez Mad. Pôté, Grande-Rue.” – Affiches du Maine, 4.IV.1785, p. 2. A carte de sûreté (AN F4787) was issued 17.XI.1793 for an “Adrien-Charles Gentilz dit d’Hauteville, peintre” at 57 rue Saint-Sauveur, 45 years old, native of Paris. He was married in Nantes, Saint-Nicolas, 3.II.1779 to a Madeleine-Françoise Brunet. He was again described as a “peintre” at the birth and death of their daughter in La Rochelle (29.VIII.1789) Rochefort (11.X.1789). He died 18.VIII.1803, then described as a “commis de banque”.