

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

JENNINGS, Samuel

fl. Philadelphia 1787–92

Advertised his drawing school at the State Lottery house in the Pennsylvania packet of 8.I.1787, adding “Mr Jennings continues to Paint Likenesses in Miniature, at three guineas each: Head Size Portraits in Oil at four guineas, and in Crayon two guineas.” Later (General advertiser, 11.VI.1792) he offered a subscription to a print of his painting of Liberty displaying the Arts and Sciences.

Bibliography

Prime 1932, II, p. 16; Schmiegel 1975, p. 331