LEMAIRE, Jacques-François

Vendin-les-Béthune 1712 – Saint-Omer 1780

Lemaire was a member of the household of the bishop of Saint-Omer in 1752 when he married a Marie-Dominique Mercier. Apparently this audomarois portrait painter left “une foule de bons portraits”, among them a series of priests at the abbaye de Saint-Bertin (one of which is in pastel), collected by a M. de Laplane and displayed in a learned society in Saint-Omer in 1862. The pastel is likely to date to after 1774 when the subject became abbaye de Saint-Bertin, and employs a di sotto in sù perspective. Lemaire also painted the altarpiece at ND des Miracles, Saint-Omer; a 1776 topographical painting with a bird’s-eye view of the abbaye by Lemaire (Saint-Omer, musée) is also known.
