MENGS, Theresia Concordia, Mme Anton von Maron

Aussig 1725 – Rome 1806

The elder sister of Anton Raphael Mengs, she worked in Rome from 1741 and later in Dresden. She married the painter Anton von Maron (1731–1808) in 1765, the year in which both artists were admitted to the Accademia di San Luca in Rome. Only a handful of her pastels are known, but these demonstrate a highly perfected approach, in a style that is close to her brother's. There has been much confusion (including in Jeffares 2006) regarding the two portraits in Dresden by or of her and her sister Julia Charlotte, q.v. It appears that both are by the same hand, but it should be noted that Anton Raphael Mengs's portrait of Julia seems to have hair and eye colour that contradict both identifications.
