MIGNARD, Pierre

Troyes 17.XI.1612 – Paris 30.V.1695

Religious and portrait painter; premier peintre du roi, recteur, chancelier and directeur of the Académie de Saint-Luc, 1690 (he refused to enter his rival Le Brun's Académie royale). A pupil of Vouet, he was in Troyes until 1636, in Italy for the next 20 years, returning to Paris (via Avignon) in 1657. A number of sheets "de la main de M. Mignard" in his posthumous inventory are described as "pastels". These may have included the anonymous "quinze testes au pastel dessinées d'après le Guide" sold (along with 27 similar sheets by Carracci and others) by the artist's widow to her daughter, the comtesse de Feuquières, née Catherine Mignard, a celebrated beauty. Several anonymous pastel copies of his celebrated oil portraits are probably later.
