SCHMIDT, Georg Friedrich

Wandlitz 24.I.1712 – Berlin 25.I.1775

After initial training in Berlin with the minor engraver Georg Paul Busch, in 1730 Schmidt enrolled in the Artilleriecorps for six years. On his release he travelled to Paris, arriving with Wille (whom he joined in Strasbourg en route) in .VII.1736, according to Wille's Mémoires. In Paris he approached Lancret, a friend of Pesne, but was directed to Nicolas Larmessin with whom he worked for some months. Agréé 1742 at the Académie royale, he exhibited an engraving of La Tour's L'Auteur qui rit in the Salon of the following year. La Tour reciprocated with a portrait of Schmidt, attesting to the friendship between these artists which persisted for many years (in 1772 he engraved a second La Tour self-portrait). Several other coloured chalk drawings of academicians from this period are also known.

He returned to Berlin in 1744 (despite being requ that year) and became engraver to the king of Prussia. Two years later he married Dorothee Luise Videbant, the daughter of a merchant; she appears in a number of his portraits. On 16.XI.1746 Friedrich II. wrote to his sister, the Markgräfin von Bayreuth, promising a pastel by Schmidt, "un habile graveur, à Berlin, qui fait de beaux tableaux au pastel"; by 31.XII.1746 the work was not ready: "Je vous ai promis un portrait en pastel de Schmidt. Je m'acquitte de cette dette, et je vous l'envoie. Schmidt se plaint de ce que je l'ai trop pressé. C'est à vous à juger si l'ouvrage est digne de vous être envoyé, ou si vous le trouvez inférieur à sa réputation." In 1757 he went to St Petersburg, at the invitation of the Tsaritsa Elisaveta Petrovna whose portrait by Tocqué he had engraved; there he founded a school of engraving for the Russian imperial portraits. He returned to Berlin in 1762.

He worked in sanguine or three crayons (some of these have erroneously been described as in pastel), and occasionally in pastel, but in a graphic manner that retains the character of coloured chalk drawing.

Salons critiques

Louis PETIT DE BACHAUMONT, Liste des meilleurs peintres, sculpteurs, graveurs et architectes des Académies royales de peinture, sculpture et architecture suivant leur rang à l'Académie, 1750, p. 33:

Je ne parle point de plusieurs bons artistes en tout genre qui sont de l'Académie, parce qu'ils sont actuellement dans le pays étranger, entre autres M. Smit [Schmidt], excellent graveur pour les portraits, il est à Berlin; M. Lungberg [Lundberg], excellent peintre de portrait au pastel, il est à Stockholm; il peint dans le goût de la Fameuse Rosa Alba Carrera [Rosalba Carrera], Vénitienne, qui est aussi de l'Académie de Paris, ainsi que Pelegrini, son beau-frère, excellent peintre d'histoire dans le goût italien moderne; il est à Venise avec elle.
