SPENCE, Byne, Mrs Thomas Beale

?East Sussex c.1720 – ?Shropshire a.1773

Byne Spence was the daughter of John Spence of South Malling and Ledbury Manor and his first wife, Byne Walker (c.1682–1721), the daughter of Sir George Walker, 1st Bt, of Bushey Hall and his wife, née Susannah Byne. In 1740 she inherited £3000 from her father's estate; the following year she with six siblings and half-siblings (issue of the second marriage of John and Gratiana) sued her brother Luke Spence (1716–1800; he married a daughter of Sir Thomas Frederick). At Dulwich College, 20.I.1742, she married Thomas Beale of Heath House, Lantwardine, Shropshire. She is not mentioned in, and was presumably dead by the time of, his will of 1.VI.1773 (proved 10.II.1776). They had three children: Thomas, Henry and Byne, who married a John Oakley in Leintwardine, Hereford, 11.III.1773 and moved to Newry, Co. Down. (Thomas and Byne gave their address as Red Lion Street when they joined the Lilliputian Society in 1765.) The 1911 exhibit is therefore a self-portrait (assuming the attribution is not simply a confusion with the sitter's maiden name). Her brother Luke Spence (1721–1800).
