STEVENSON, William

fl. Norfolk 1777–83

The miniaturist who exhibited at the Royal Academy 1777–78 was recorded in Norwich in 1782. The following year, an advertisement in the Norfolk chronicle (15.III.1783) announces his intention of opening a drawing academy at 100 Pottergate Street, formerly Mrs Wright's boarding school. In addition to his teaching fees, the advertisement also mentions "Grounded Paper for Crayons, which produce fine Effect with little Labour, 2 shillings per Sheet."
