SOUTHWELL, Mary

Mount Cambell, Leitrim 15.IX.1766 – Henbury
brd 20.VIII.1789

Mary Southwell was the eldest daughter of Edward Southell, 20th Lord de Clifford, MP for Gloucestershire and his wife Sophia Cambell, governess to Princess Charlotte of Wales. She died unmarried. The single example, evidently inspired by Rosalba but not a direct copy, was in the family collection.
