

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

TAMBERLAIN

fl. London 1780

It is unclear why Graves describes the artist who exhibited four black chalk drawings at the Free Society in 1780 as a “crayon painter”. A Rev. Humphrey Tamberlain (c.1723–1791) was rector of Llangyniew 1767–91; he was brother-in-law to Sir Richard Perryn, baron of the Exchequer.

Bibliography

Graves 1907