VANDERLYN, John

Kingston, New York 15.X.1776–23.IX.1852

History painter and portraitist in oil and miniature; pupil of Gilbert Stuart; grandson of Pieter Vanderlyn (q.v.). He travelled to Europe, and was recorded in Vincent's studio in 1797, exhibiting in the Paris salons of 1800, 1812, 1841 and 1846. He made small drawings in "crayons", probably Conté crayon or similar monochrome soft chalk; most of these works (a list, mainly undated, is in Bolton 1923) falls outside the scope of this Dictionary.
