WEST, Robert Lucius

Dublin ?c.1780–1850

Said to be Francis Robert West's eldest son by his second marriage to Ellen Walsh; his date of birth is usually indicated as c.1774, although this causes difficulties with the chronology of his father's marriages. Robert Lucius West also worked in oils and crayon. He was awarded prizes at the Dublin Society's school in 1795 and 1796 (suggesting the later date of birth proposed here), and exhibited from 1800. His œuvre falls outside our scope.
