

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition – Iconographical genealogies

JEFFERYES

Sir James Jefferyes [Jeffries, Jeffreys, etc.] (1635–p.1713), captain in the guards of Jan III Sobieski, brigadier-general in the English service under Queen Anne, Governor of Duncannon Fort, then of Cork 1698, cr. Kt Cracow 1676, prisoner at Poltava ∞ 1° Mlle Vandenenden, of Sweden (–1685); 2° Catherina Dranchentulin, of Sweden

⇒ James Jefferyes (1677–1739), minister plenipotentiary of Great Britain to court of Charles XIII of Sweden; minister to the Hanseatic towns; Governor of Cork 1722; captain in the service of George I ∞ 1° Mlle Colmarr of Danzig; 2° Anne Broderick (–1763), dau. of St John Broderick, son of Lord Middleton q.v.

⇒ James St John Jefferyes (1734–1796), major of the 22nd Foot, Governor of Cork, agricultural reformer ∞ Arabella Fitzgibbon (1734–1796), sister of John, 1st Earl of Clare (1748–1802), lord chancellor {Hamilton}

⇒ ⇒ Marianne Jefferys ∞ 1° [1784–96 diss.] George Frederick Nugent, 7th Earl of Westmeath (1760–1814) q.v.; 2° Augustus Cavendish Bradshaw

⇒ ⇒ James St John Jefferyes (c.1767–1863)

⇒ ⇒ ⇒ dau. ∞ Sir George Conway Colthurst

The Gentleman's magazine, 1863, p. 339